

Newsletter 2/14

May we introduce to you...

Philipp Wahlig has been named Manager Customer Service Centre at LUG aircargo handling effective January 1. In this function he succeeds Thomas Wolf who has been nominated Deputy Operations Manager at LUG's Branch at Frankfurt Airport.

Philipp has worked in various roles at a logistics service provider, finally holding the position of Branch Manager with the power of procuration. He successfully completed an integrated degree program in business economics with a focus on logistics.

Philipp Wahlig has several years of experience as an aircargo security officer and a quality management representative. He will integrate that knowledge into his daily work.

The training and orientation phase in the different departments of our company will be finalized by the end of February, so that Philipp will be available in his function as from March 1, reachable during normal office hours via:

Additional space on apron

Last week we came to an agreement with Fraport AG for the use of additional space on apron which is mainly used for import cargo. Thus, additional warehouse space is available for build-up and break down, giving us more flexibility in the overall handling process.
